PRESIDENT'S PIECE

Good afternoon everyone - a very warm welcome to Penlee Park for today's match against our long-term rivals from Priory Park, Bodmin. We look forward to another high-tempo game and hope we can repeat our performance in the Cornwall Senior Cup last Tuesday - that must have lifted everyone's spirits on a damp evening.

It's certainly encouraging that the team's performance is improving game by game, week by week and we seem to have reached a standard where we can compete with all but the very best in the League. The management and coaching team are doing a sterling job and - along with the players - deserve the continuing support of us all.

Nick George, President

FROM THE DUG-OUT

Firstly a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters from Bodmin for today's eagerly awaited game.

For the first time this season the squad was at full strength for the Senior Cup tie against St Dennis. Being able to rest club captain Tyler Tonkin was a testament to all the players for a top performance and a stark contrast to the first four home games of the season when 35 players were unavailable for selection and results were hard to come by.

Tuesday's wonderful progression into the quarter finals of the Cornwall Senior Cup is now something to look forward to but let's now get focused on the points available today.

We've come along way in a short space of time and with a strong desire, a fantastic team spirit and a willing eagerness to work hard amongst all the players, I'm sure we can continue our terrific improvement in all our important fixtures this month and beyond.

Macca

I would just like to thank the supporters who seem to be coming more and more each week— slowly but surely. And of course all the volunteers for the work that goes on behind the scenes!

On the pitch we are looking stronger as a squad and myself, Adrian, Macca and Ash will continue to do our best to keep the boys improving!

Nicks

LAST TIME OUT

PENZANCE 5 ST DENNIS 1

A match preceded by a poignant minute's silence (pictured below) in memory of Tony Claypole saw Penzance do their former player proud by surging into the last eight of the Cornwall Senior Cup with a blistering second half display.

The home management made two changes to the side that had started against Newquay, resting Darryl Richards and Max Everard in favour of Kevin Lawrence and Hadli Fadli. The rotation proved no hindrance as the Magpies dominated the opening stages. Silas Sullivan (twice) and Fadli both went close before Mark Vercesi broke the deadlock in the 19th minute, soaring to meet a Lawrence corner and head in his first goal of the season.

Against the run of play, St Dennis levelled just before the interval. With Penzance still reorganising having been forced to replace injured Fadli with Everard, a free-kick was conceded on the edge of their penalty area. Josh Pope blasted it against the wall, and the ball broke kindly to Ryan Oxley for a close range finish.

Unfazed, the Magpies re-emerged just as dominant in the second period, but this time were able to convert the pressure into goals. Jacob Trudgeon pounced on a defensive blunder to walk the ball into an unguarded net to restore the lead, then turned provider, laying a Lawrence pass back into the path of Sullivan to curl a sumptuous left foot shot into Ryan Holland's far right corner – richly deserved by a player had seen "goals" disallowed in each of the last two home games.

Sullivan bagged his second of the night in the 67th minute. Trudgeon capitalised on another misunderstanding in the St Dennis defence to head a loose ball goalwards and the stand-in captain applied the slightest of touches as it crossed the line. Trudgeon then completed a hat-trick of assists – cushioning a Cam McCabe cross back to Rolandos Samnauskas to conclude the scoring with vicious low drive.

Penzance are therefore through to the Quarter-Finals for the first time since 2011. The tie, which will be played in the second midweek of January, has yet to be drawn.
